“He was a dream horse to train: great nature and real honest.”

Saxon’s sire is the incomparable Danehill, the greatest sire in the history of Australasian breeding and racing, and sire of simply too many Champions and Champion Sires to mention here.

Saxon’s dam, on the other hand, is by Sadler’s Wells, the greatest sire in the history of European breeding and racing, and sire of the ill-fated Scenic, WA’s Champion sire. She hails from one of the Aga Khan’s great families, is the dam of three stakes horses, and is closely related to Kalanisi, dual Group One Breeders Cup Turf winner of over four million dollars and now a successful sire.

“He copped a heap of work and was always sound. Always.”

Although Saxon was a winner as a 2YO, his best race performances were as a 3YO, and included wins in the Gr.2 Queensland Guineas and the Gr.3 Doomben Classic, each over a mile.

“He’d have won more Group races if he’d not raced on so many wet tracks.”

Gerald Ryan ~ Trainer

SAXON

OUTSTANDING FIRST CROP FOALS

“I have viewed a number of Saxon’s first crop weanlings and was most impressed, they are athletic, quality individuals with great scope.”

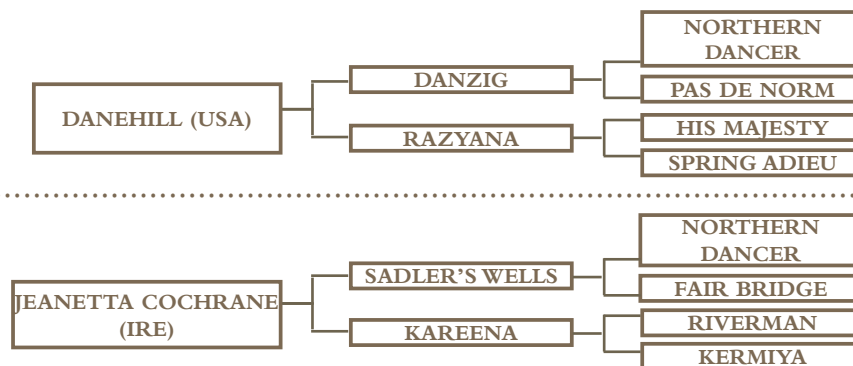

Adam Durrant - Trainer

“The sun may never set on the Danehill sire line. One of the greatest stallions to have stood in Australia, Danehill stamped his stock with class and quality. The late Stanley Wootton who imported Star Kingdom to Australia and bred greats such as Todman and Noholme, once told me that one of the best indications of the future of a stallion was to observe the similarity of the stock to their sire. He was certainly right with that about Star Kingdom! And now Saxon shares that with the best. Everyone who sent mares to Saxon in his first season may not have had the luxury of inspecting his foals but their vision has to be commended after inspecting the stock of Saxon.”
